

Dear Parent:

One of the core values of Cottonwood Creek Baptist Church is that God designed the family as the primary place for discipleship. The Faith Path initiative exists to partner with you as you guide your child's spiritual journey one step at a time.

I hope you will take the following simple steps to begin the process in your family.

STEP ONE: WATCH

We have provided a short video that explains the philosophy behind the Faith Path (this video is also available on our website). Please take a few minutes to watch in order to better understand why Cottonwood Creek wants to partner with you in fulfilling your most important parenting assignment.

STEP TWO: READ

You will find a brochure that explains our "one step at a time" strategy. If your child is registered with us, you will receive emails on select future birthdays with information about other Faith Path opportunities to help you leverage the best faith formation strategy for your child's stage of development.

STEP THREE: START

To help you jump start the process of intentionality, this kit includes two activity options called Faith Walk and Faith Handoff. I encourage you to put a day and time on your schedule right now to get started.

Thank you for taking seriously the task of guiding your child's faith at home. I hope you find the Faith Path initiative helpful. Feel free to visit cottonwoodcreek.org/faith-at-home to learn more and to determine which step you can begin with your child today.

Blessings!

Cottonwood Creek Baptist Church

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates." Deuteronomy 6.5-9
